Three Priorities: A Discussion

Academic Board

October 2, 2014
Installation Address: Three priorities

1. Leverage our urban location more fully, for the mutual benefit of university and city

2. Strengthen and deepen key international partnerships: well-defined strategic focus

3. Re-imagine and re-invent undergraduate education
Three priorities: context, purpose

- Towards 2030 plan, View from 2012 widely accepted
- Three priorities: a means to achieving the goals set out in Towards 2030
  - Enhancing our standing as:
    - a leader in research-intensive undergraduate education
    - a leader in graduate education
    - a globally ranked research powerhouse
Moving the conversation forward

- Provide more detail on each of the priorities
- Invite comments, suggestions for ways forward
- Foster consensus amongst stakeholders: faculty, students, staff, alumni, governors
- Signal intent to key partners: government, donors, community partners
Leveraging our Location: an Urban Strategy

- Goals:
  - To improve the state of our host city-region
  - To enhance the University’s success in:
    - Attracting and retaining talent
    - Research
    - Teaching and learning
  - To enhance our reputation as a city-builder
An Urban Strategy: Key Elements

- Urban research
- Urban teaching
- Urban outreach, partnerships
- University as city-builder (literal)
Strengthening International Partnerships

Goals:

- Leverage existing networks, relationships for the mutual benefit of U of T and its global partners
- Enhance our ability to meet global challenges
- Enhance our global reputation, profile, rankings
- Enhance our success in attracting, retaining talent
- Enhance global citizenship, fluency of students
- Enhance support for Urban Strategy
An International Strategy: Key Elements

- Institutional partnerships: strategic approach
- Student mobility: outbound, inbound
- Student recruitment
- International presence
- Inter-divisional co-ordination
Reinventing Undergraduate Education

Goals:

• Better prepare students for lifelong success
  • Respond to pressures to produce ‘job-ready’ graduates
• Rejuvenate liberal arts model/ideal
• Anticipate, leverage, create disruptive changes in modes/mechanisms for education, knowledge production
An Education Strategy: Key Elements

- Research-based learning
- Experience-based learning
- Internationalized learning
- New learning technologies, mixed modes
- Transitions
Three Priorities: Interactions

- The three priority areas are mutually reinforcing
- Urban and international partnerships: two sides of the same coin
- Both urban and international partnerships have potential to enhance, reinvent undergraduate education
